MULLIKINS OF MARYLAND

First Generation in America

JAMES MULLIKIN, from whom are descended all Western Shore (Maryland) families of that name, was transported previous to 1664. Under this date in the Land Office at Annapolis is to be found: "Came Thomas Williams and demanded land for the transportation of John Crossley, John River, William Thompson, James Mullikin, etc."

The Early Settler List uses the following terms to classify those who came into the colonies: "Immigrated" after one who paid his own passage; "Service," one of the servant class; "Servant," one of that class who came with his employer; "Servant Transported," an unemployed servant whose passage was paid by a colonist, and "Transported," a Freeman whose passage was paid by a colonist to whom he usually assigned as payment, his rights to the land offered by Lord Baltimore as an inducement to all who would settle in his Province. According to Kilty's Land Holders Assistant, this offer was at first 200 acres, then 100 acres and later, 50 acres; and was abolished entirely in 1680, and a flat rate charged per acre. It is presumed that James Mullikin emigrated from Scotland about the year 1650. The Provincial Records for the period 1657-58 as given in the following show that he was in the Province at least a year before that time.

"Upon ye petition of James Mullikin plaintiff against Henry Coursey defendant the defense attorney John Coursey not having notice or knowledge concerning this cause desyres a respite til next court which was granted." (Liber S-pp 33)

"Subpoena by ye Sherriff of ye County of Calvert to warrant Thomas Brampton to be at ye next Provincial Court to be held September eight next to testify his knowledge in a cause depending betwixt James Mullikin and Henry Coursey Gentleman which cause was respited the last Provincial Court at ye request of ye said James Mullikin." (pp 64)

"John Obder aged about 36 years or thereabouts sworn twenty-eight day April 1658 sayeth that about October last was tweluemonth that he this depont heard Mr. Richard Harris condicon and agree with James Mullikin that if he the said James Mullikin would zeate his plantateon with some servants that he ye Mr. Harris would place with him to help build and cleare ye said plantateon. The crop being finished he ye said Mr. Harris did promise to giue him three months work with an able hand for his winters work and further cannot depose." (Page 49)

James Mullikin plaintiff
vs. Henry Coursey Def.

"Upon ye petition of ye plaintiff for three months worke in cleareing of ground which being proved by ye oath of Capt. John Obder it is thereupon ordered ye defendant satisfy ye plaintiff three months worke with an able hand according to his demand with 130 pounds tobacco as court charges." (Page 109)

"James Mullikin came into court and both acquit and release Mr. Henry Coursey from all orders of the court formerly had or obteyned against him the said Mr. Coursey Mr. Coursey pay the court charges." (Page 113)

On April 18, 1664, James Mullikin patented a 300 acre tract of land in Dorchester County under Lord Baltimore and called it "Mullikin's Orchard." Another tract of 200 acres in the same county, known as "Mullikin's Green," was patented August 14, 1665. This latter was, according to the Will of Mary Darnaal Mullikin, wife of James Mullikin,¹ a tract of land taken up by virtue of the rights of her first husband, John Darnaal. Patrick and James Gunnel Mullikin patented "Taylor's Joy," in Calvert County, in 1658, certificate in the name of Richard Preston. The fact that Patrick and James Mullikin came to the Province about the same time and that they patented land together in the same locations, would indicate that they might have been brothers.

James Mullikin married Mary Darnaal prior to 1658. She was the widow of John Darnaal by whom she had one son, John, under age in 1667. The death of James Mullikin must have occurred sometime during the summer or early fall of 1667 as his Will which follows was probated October 16, 1667.

"August the Eighteenth one thousand six hundred sixty & six In the Name of God Amen, I James Mullikin of Patuxen River Planter in the county of Calvert being sick in body but of good and perfect memory thanks be to Almighty God & calling to remembrance the uncertaine estate of this transitory Life and that all Flesh must Yield unto Death when it shall please God to call Do make constitute ordain and Declare this my Last Will and Testament in Manner and form following revoking and annulling by these presents all and Every Testament and Testaments Will and Wills heretofore by me made and declared either by Word or by Writeing and this to be taken only for my Last Will and Testament and none other and first being penitent and sorry from the bottome of my heart for my sins past most humbly desiring forgiveness I give and Committ my Soule unto Almighty My Saviour and Redeemer in whom and by the meritts of Jesus Christ I trust and believe assuredly to be saved and to have full remission and forgiveness of all my sins and that my Soule with my body at the Generall day of resurrection shall rise again with Joy and through the Meritts of Christs Death and Passion to possess and Inheritt the King-

By this act, "Mullikin's Orchard" was given to James Mullikin and "Mullikin's Green" to John Darnaal.

Under date of April, 1671, in the Provincial Records, is the following:

"An Act for the payment of the Public Charge of the Province in Calvert County to the orphan children of James Mullikin, 450 pounds of tobacco."

This was probably due to James Mullikin for some service rendered the Province.

James Mullikin² married Jane Prather, daughter of Jonathan and Jane Prather. She is mentioned in the Will of her brother, George Prather, dated May 23, 1698, probated July 29, 1698.

"To brothers William, Thomas and John personality Sister Jane Mollikine and to Nathan Bignall, personality Wife Mary Executrix and residuary legattee of estate, real and personal including dwelling plantation "Orphans Gift." Testators: William Prather, John Prather, Henry Butler. pp 150, Vol. 11, Baldwin's Wills."

The name Prather appears often among the early records of Maryland History. There were five known children of Jonathan and Jane Prather: George who died in 1698; Jonathan who was married in 1710 and had two sons, John and Thomas; William; Thomas who married Martha Sprigg, daughter of Thomas Sprigg I, and his second wife Eleanor Nuthall, and had three sons, Aaron, Thomas and John Smith Prather; and Jane who married James Mullikin². Jonathan Prather died about 1682 and his widow, Jane, married (2) in 1683, John Smith, a wealthy planter of Mattapany Landing, Prince Georges County, Maryland.

Children born to James² and Jane (Prather) Mullikin were: James, John, Mary, Jane, William, Eleanor (or Ellen) and Thomas.

James Mullikin took land in Prince Georges County in 1698, certificate in the name of John Keen.

Mary Mullikin² (James¹), born prior to 1666. Nothing further known.

Elizabeth Mullikin² (James¹), born prior to 1666, married Richard Hartrup (Deeds Liber M, folio 223. Upper Marlboro).

Third Generation

James' (James,' James'), eldest son of James and Jane (Prather) Mullikin, married Charity Belt about 1707. They lived on his plantation called "The Level" located in what was known as "The Forest," in Prince Georges County, where he was one of the Vestry of St. Barnabas Church. Charity (Belt) Mullikin was the daughter of John Belt and his wife, Elizabeth Tydings (or Tidings). The latter was the daughter of Richard Tydings of Anne Arundel County. As the widow Belt, she married John Lamb, a merchant of Annapolis. All Hallow's Parish Register records the baptism of Elizabeth, Charity, Sarah and Jeremy Belt, December 14, 1703, at which time was baptized also, Margaret Lamb, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Tydings) Belt Lamb. The Will of Elizabeth (Tydings) Belt Lamb was probated December 14, 1737 in which she mentions daughter Charity Mullikin and granddaughter, Mary Norwood.

There is very little known concerning Richard Tydings, father of Elizabeth, except that he must have been a man of integrity, for in 1675 he is given as Testator of the estate of Thomas Sparrow. According to his Will, dated February 2, 1687, Richard Tydings had five children, namely: Charity, John, Elizabeth, Prelitia and Mary. His wife evidently preceeded him in death for no mention is made of her other than to bequeath some of her handiwork to his eldest daughter, Charity. It is interesting to note that two of his daughters married two of the Overseers (Guardians) mentioned in his Will. Charity married John Jordian as we find this reference in the Maryland Historical Society Magazine Vol. XIV, pp 143, under date of 1696.

"Richard Tydings of Anne Arundel County, whose daughter, Charity was his executrix and wife of John Jordain of Kent County, five children."

Elizabeth married John Belt.

"In the name of God Amen the second Day of Feby. Anno Domini 1687 I Richard Tydings of Anne Arundel County in the Province of Maryland plantor being sick and weak in body but of sound and good mind and memory (praise be given to God for the same) and knowing the uncertainty of this life on earth and being desirous to settle things in order do make this my last will and testament in manner and form following: That is to say first and principally I commend my Soul to Almighty God—knowing that I shall receive pardon of all my sins and be saved by the death and passion of my Saviour Jesus Christ and my body to the earth from whence it was taken to be buried at the disposition of my Executrix hereafter named and as for such worldly estate as it hath pleased God to bestow upon me and my will and meaning is John Belt, Father of Charity (Belt) Mullikin was born in Norfolk County, Virginia about 1645, died 1698. He was the son of Humphrey Belt born 1615 and his wife Anne—. Humphrey Belt sailed from Gravesend, England aboard the ship "America" and landed in Jamestown, Virginia on July 23, 1635 at the age of twenty years. In 1647 Humphrey Belt, of Elizabeth River Parish, Virginia, was deeded 75 acres of land. In 1654, he was granted 220 acres in Linhaven Parish, Lower Norfolk County, Virginia, for transporting five persons into the colony. On June 30, 1663, Humphrey Belt entered rights for land in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, in the name of himself, John Belt, Anne Belt and Sarah Belt.

"The Maryland Belts are traditionally of Scotch origin, but probably were descended from the Belts of "Bossal Hall," Yorkshire, England who more remotely trace to Lombardy, the Registrars of the Armorial College, attesting that the Arms of the family are represented among those of the Duchy. The Belt family are among the oldest in Yorkshire, the earliest records in their possession dating from King Richard II, 1387. Robert Belt was of the Parish of Styllingflete, seat of Andrews College, in County of City of York, 1548. His son was Leonard Belt, Gentleman, numbered among the Freemen of York City, 1580. In 1605, Robert, son of Leonard, was Alderman, and in 1627, Lord Mayor of York. He was again Lord Mayor in 1639, and was knighted the following year. He married Grace, daughter of Daniel Forcroft of Halifax. Owing to Sir Robert's intense loyalty to the cause of Charles I, he was disenfranchised after the Battle of Marston Moor, in 1644, and was dispossessed of his estate "Bossal Hall." Upon the restoration of the Stuarts, in 1660, the ancestral estate was restored to his grandson, Sir Robert Belt, and is still owned by his descendants." (From "Colonial Families in America" by MacKenzie).

John and Elizabeth (Tydings) Belt had seven children of whom the eldest was John, who married Lucy Lawrence.

Joseph Belt, the second son, married (1) Hester Beall, daughter of Colonel Ninian and Ruth (Moore) Beall and (2) Margery (Beall) Sprigg, widow of Thomas Sprigg III, and sister of his first wife, Hester. Joseph Belt was prominent in the affairs of the Province and was one of the founders of Rock Creek Parish, 1726. This is the oldest glebe in the District of Columbia, and the Parish Church, St. Paul's erected between 1773 and 1775, is the oldest sacred structure. In 1725, he patented "Chevy Chase," now a part of the District of Columbia. The Manor house built in 1725, stood until 1907, at which time it was torn down.

The children of Joseph Belt and his first wife, Hester (Beall) Belt were:

John, born March 13, 1707, married March 4, 1728, Margaret Queen.

Anne, born 1709, died 1762, married (1) Thomas Claggett, (2) Ignatius Perry.

Rachel, born December 13, 1711, married July 11, 1727, Osborne Sprigg.

Joseph, born December 19, 1717, died 1761, married Anne Sprigg.

Tobias, born August 20, 1720, died 1785, married June 1752, Mary Gordon, daughter of George Gordon. Tobias was a Captain in the Revolutionary Army.

Mary, born December 24, 1722, married (1) Edward Sprigg (2) Thomas Pindel.

Jeremiah, born March 4, 1724, died 1785, married June 21, 1746, Mary Sprigg, daughter of Thomas Sprigg III, and his wife, Margery (Beall) Sprigg.

James, born July 23, 1727. He was in Naval Service during the Revolutionary War.

Children of Joseph Belt by his second marriage to Margery (Beall) Sprigg, widow of Thomas Sprigg III.

Humphrey, married Mary Brooke. He was a Captain in the Revolutionary Army.

Margery, married (1) Zachariah Lyles and (2) Ignatius Perry.

As a memorial to Colonel Joseph Belt, the original owner of all of the now exclusive, and fashionable section of Chevy Chase, a bronze tablet has been placed on a huge boulder at Chevy Chase Circle, just inside of the District of Columbia line. The inscription on the tablet reads:

"Colonel Joseph Belt, 1680-1761, Maryland Patentee of Chevy Chase, Trustee of the first free schools in Maryland, one of the Vestry of Rock Creek Parish, Member of the House of Burgesses, Colonel of Prince Georges County Militia during the French and Indian War; erected by the Society of Colonial Wars in the District of Columbia, November 12, 1918."

Other children of John and Elizabeth (Tydings) Belt were: Benjamin, Elizabeth, Sarah, Jeremiah (posthumous) and Charity.

In the Will of John Belt, dated May 13, 1697 is found, "I give and bequeath unto my second daughter, Charity Belt, my negro girl named Sarah and also the sume of Ten Pounds Sterling money—each to be paid and delivered to her at ye time she attains ye age of sixteen years or day of marriage which first shall happen."

They were: James, Elizabeth, Mary, John, Margaret, Jeremiah, Belt, Charity, Thomas and Benjamin. Only six of these are named in the Will of James,³ in 1739, so it is presumed that the four not mentioned, John, Margaret, Belt and Charity Mullikin died previous to that date.

William Mullikin^s (James,^s James^s), youngest son, was born about 1698. He is mentioned in the Will of his Grandmother, Jane Prather Smith; he and his brothers, Thomas and John, each to receive a two-year-old heifer. He married, June 6, 1727, Margaret Turner, born March 4, 1699, daughter of John and Sarah Turner. Their three children were: Margaret, Basil, and Mary.

Mary Mullikin^s (James,^s James^s), youngest daughter, married John Bowie in December, 1709.

In the Will of John Smith, of Mattapany Landing, Maryland, dated September 3, 1707, is the following:

"I give and bequeath to Mary Mullikin, daughter of James, 50 Pounds Sterling.

"I give and bequeath to Ellinor Mullikin daughter of James a parcell of land I bought of Captain James Keech Being part of a tract of Land called Thorpland conta 110 acres to her and the heires of her Body Lawfully Begotten. But if she Dye without such heires then I give and bequeath the same to Mary Mullikin and her heires."

In 1709, a settlement of John Smith's estate is recorded and therein is stated that the property left to the daughters of James Mullikin had been paid to John Bowie, who had married Mary, the youngest; she inheriting her deceased sister's portion.

"John Bowie, Sr., the first of his name in the Annals of Maryland, emigrated from Scotland, according to Family tradition, about the year 1705-6, at the invitation of his maternal Uncle, John Smith, who preceeding him many years, settled on the Patuxent River, a few miles north of the present village of Nottingham.

John Bowie's testimony before a Boundry Commission, in 1751, shows him to have been born in 1688, and was therefore not of age when made the principal legatee of his Uncle's Will." ("Bowies and Their Kindred" by Waltre Worthington Bowie).

Under his Uncle's Will, he received a tract of land known as Brooke Wood, "together with the crops; four negroes named Charles, Lambo, Dick and Sambo; one negro woman called Peggy; one Scotch boy, named Robert McConaugh; one lott of land with the house in Nottingham Towne on the Patuxent River, and the appurtenances." After the death of Jane Prather Smith, he was to receive two parcells of land being part of Brookfield, and one negro named Dick. It was also stipulated that he "have three weeks work of George Dunbar every year so long as he hath to serve, although he be given to my wife."

John and Mary (Mullikin) Bowie had seven children: John, Jr., Eleanor, James, Allen, William, Thomas and Mary.

Fourth Generation

James Mullikin⁴ (James,³ James,² James¹), born March 5, 1709-10, was the eldest child of James³ and Charity (Belt) Mullikin, and inherited the home plantation in Prince Georges County. He married, October 31, 1734, Mary Pottenger, daughter of Samuel and Eleanor (Willetts) Pottenger. She is mentioned in the Will of her Father, probated March 25, 1742, as receiving 200 acres "Fellowship." James Mullikin⁴ was appointed Overseer of this Will. The Pottengers claim descent from Walter Le Potager, of England, born about 1270. John Pottenger, the first of the name, who is found in this country, was a landholder, owning numerous slaves. He was a man of influence and prominence and a staunch Presbyterian. His home place, which was called "Major's Lot," was on Collington, a branch of the Patuxent, five miles above Upper Marlboro, Maryland. No record of children born to James⁴ and Mary (Pottenger) Mullikin, has been found. It must have been this James who was a Captain in the Upper Battalion of Militia, Prince Georges County, during the Revolution.

Elizabeth Mullikin⁴ (James,³ James,² James¹), born September 25, 1711, died after 1775. She married, May 16, 1732, Samuel Duvall, fourth son of Mareen Duvall, "The Younger," and Elizabeth Jacob, daughter of Captain John Jacob.

"The Duvall family was among the earliest in the province and the name is found woven in the history of Anne Arundel County. Mareen Duvall, the Father of Mareen "The Younger," was a French Huguenot, from Nantes, France and came to America with Colonel William Burgess, in 1650. The latter was a merchant, whose vessel brought 150 settlers who settled on the south side of South River, Anne Arundel County. Mareen Duvall was the owner of "South River," "Middle Plantation," and "Great Marsh." During the Revolution of 1689, Duvall was among the leaders who sustained the Lord Proprietary. His name is found in Colonel Greenbury's letter to Governor Copley, as one of the Jacobin party whose mysterious meetings he could not solve. His wife married after his death, as the third wife of Colonel Henry Ridgley, and later, became the wife of Rev. Mr. Henderson, Commissary of the Church of England. Together, they built Old Trinity or Forest Chapel, near Collington in Prince Georges County, Maryland." ("Founders of Anne Arundel and Howard Counties, Maryland" by Warfield).

Old Trinity is still standing and in use as a House of Worship. During the last year or two, the old slave gallery has been removed, and a modern heating system installed. Otherwise, the Church is almost in the original. The writer, thru the courtesy of Mr. Robert Lee Mullikin, was privileged to visit this Chapel on Easter Sunday, late in the afternoon, just as the sun was setting. The Church itself is beautiful in it's simplicity, and with the sun shining thru the stained glass windows made a never-to-be-forgotten picture. The old Churchyard in which sleep many Duvalls and Mullikins, is kept in perfect condition. What greater heritage of influence to posterity could one leave than this church which has survived these two hundred years and more!

Mareen Duvall was thrice married. The name of his first wife is unknown. His second wife, Susanne, is named in his Will as the Mother of his son, Mareen, the younger. His third wife, was Mary Stanton, sister of Daniel Stanton of Philadelphia, and was married to him about 1693, the year previous to his death, and bore him no children.

Samuel and Elizabeth (Mullikin) Duvall had ten children: James, Charity, Elizabeth, Elisha, Samuel, Margaret, Jacob, Jeremiah, Jesse and Gabriel.

Mary Mullikin⁴ (James,³ James,² James¹), born April 27, 1714, married Norwood. Nothing further is known regarding her.

John Mullikin⁴ (James,³ James,² James¹), born March 29, 1716, evidently died young, as he is not mentioned in the Will of his Father, in 1739.

Margaret Mullikin⁴ (James,³ James,² James¹), born November 30, 1719. Nothing further is found regarding her, neither is she mentioned in the Will of her Father in 1739.

Jeremiah Mullikin⁴ (James,³ James,² James¹), born January 30, 1722, married prior to October 10, 1747, Margaret Waters, daughter of Samuel and Jane Waters. He died sometime near January 20, 1789, as that is the date on which his Will was probated.

"In the Name of God, Amen, I, Jeremiah Mullikin, of Anne Arundel County being of sound and perfect mind and memory thanks be given to God for the same, do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament in manner and form as follows:

Viz. Imprimis my Will is that all my Debts and funeral Charges be paid and discharged.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son, Belt Mullikin his heirs and assigns forever the Plantation I now dwell on and all lands I possess, my Will and meaning is that my loving Wife Margaret Mullikin shall hold one third part of the aforesaid mentioned Land during her Life.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my loving wife Margaret Mullikin one third part of my personal estates likewise three negroe boys named Will, Roger, and Charles, during her Life but my Will and meaning is that at the Decease of my Wife the three negroe boys shall go to my three grandsons as hereafter given.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my Grandson Jeremiah Mullikin one Negroe boy named Will after the decease of his Grandmother Margaret Mullikin and to his heirs and assigns forever.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my Grandson Jeremiah Worthington one Negroe boy named Roger after the decease of his Grandmother Margaret Mullikin and to his heirs and assigns forever.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Ann Howard the sum of twenty pounds Current money to be paid her at my decease by my Executor hereafter to be named.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my son Belt Mullikin and my daughters Margaret Worthington and Ann Howard all the remaining part of my personal estate that is not already given to be equally divided between them and their heirs and assigns forever.

Item. I do hereby constitute nominate and appoint my son Belt Mullikin Sole Executor of this my last Will and Testament Revoking Disannuling and making void all other Wills heretofore by me made.

In witness hereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seale this Nineteenth day of December 1787.

Jeremiah⁴ and Margaret (Waters) Mullikin, had three children of whom the eldest was Belt. There were two daughters, Margaret and Ann.

Jeremiah⁴ Mullikin⁴ and his son Belt⁵ both took the Oath of Fidelity (Vol. 51, pp 55 D. A. R. Magazine).

In the Census of 1776, Jeremiah Mullikin,⁴ is listed with one white female, one white man, four black men, one black woman, six black children, and six 'pounds taxables.

Shown on the opposite page is the first house, to our knowledge, built on Mullikin land in Anne Arundel County. The downstairs was divided into two long rooms. The back room ran the full length of the house but there was a small hall at the end of the front room with a beautiful curving staircase and a most beautiful hand rail. The place was called "Marriotts" for a previous land owner. This house burned down several years ago, and afterwards, the initials "J. M.", presumably for Jeremiah Mullikin, were found scratched in the chimney.

Practically all of the data on the line of Jeremiah Mullikin and his descendants has been furnished by Mrs. Cora (Anderson) DuLaney, of Waldorf, Md. The picture and description of this house were also furnished by Mrs. DuLaney.

Belt Mullikin⁴ (James,³ James,² James¹), born February 8, 1725. He is not mentioned in his Father's Will in 1739, so must have died previous to that date.

Charity Mullikin⁴ (James,³ James,² James¹), born February 6, 1727. She evidently died in childhood, as she is not mentioned in her Father's Will.

Thomas Mullikin⁴ (James,³ James,² James¹), from whom our line descends, was born May 24, 1729. The Queen Caroline Parish Records show that he married *Elizabeth Ellen Williams, February 27, 1761. She was born in 1743, the daughter of Thomas and Cave (King) Williams, and was descended from the Nuthall, Sprigg, King and Hilleary families, who were among the earliest in the Province. She died in 1825, having survived her husband twenty years.

The Census of Maryland, 1776, shows Thomas and Elizabeth Mullikin with fourteen male slaves, sixteen female slaves, one male white over sixteen years of age, one male white under sixteen years, one white female and one white slave over sixteen years, and eighty-eight Pounds Taxables.

The first record we find of the Mullikins in Anne Arundel County, Maryland, is in the following Deed of Purchase. Doubtless, this land was bought with "funds in the hands of Mr. Samuel White March, of London," mentioned in the Will of James,³ probated in 1740.

A plan surveyed and platted by Richard Beard, on February 20, 1684-85, shows the boundaries and acreage in the original lands known as "Merriton's Fancy," and "Simpson's Choice," mentioned in the foregoing deed, which was made for John Merriton and John Simpson. This plan, drawn with quill and ink, shows the course of the Patuxent River. "Merriton's Fancy" contained 500 acres and "Simpson's Choice," 615 acres.

A plan of the plantation, made by Brice Howard, in October, 1786, by a scale of fifty equal parts to an inch, shows the property line between Jeremiah,⁴ and Thomas⁴ Mullikin. A note on the plan reads: "Courses for the 338 acres beginning at a stone planted by Benjamin Mullikin,⁴ near the road, it being the dividing line between them." The part assigned to Thomas Mullikin,⁴ contained 338 $\frac{1}{4}$ acres and that to Jeremiah Mullikin,⁴ 337 $\frac{3}{4}$ acres.

Thomas Mullikin⁴ was a Captain in the Severn Battalion, Maryland Militia, during the Revolutionary War, (11th Vol. folio 178, etc. of the Maryland Archives published by the Maryland Historical Society). The original Commission No. 136 is on file with the Maryland Historical Society. He took the Oath of Fidelity February 9, 1778. A very fine team of horses owned by him and known as "The Bell Team," which was used to haul freight from Pennsylvania into Cumberland, Maryland, was commandeered during the Revolution and used for the hauling of ammunition. One of the descendants of Captain Thomas Mullikin⁴ has in her possession a silver eagle pin which was worn by him on the cockade of his hat during the Revolution. Many descendants have joined D. A. R., and S. A. R. on his service record during the Revolutionary War.

"June 15, 1776. The Council of Safety orders payment to Mrs. Anne Johnson for providing subsistence for Captain Thomas Mullikin's Company of Militia on the late alarm of the "Otter," Sloop of War."

C. S. J.—Journal and Correspondence of the Council of Safety, 1775-76.

"Thursday, February 22, 1776. Commissions issued to etc. Also to Absolom Anderson, appointed Ensign of Captain Thomas Mullikin's Company, in said County, all belonging to the Severn Battalion, etc."

Children born to Thomas and Elizabeth Ellen (Williams) Mullikin were: James, Thomas, Basil, Osbourn, Benjamin, Ellender, Charity, Elizabeth, Sarah, Cave and Mary.

An account of the death of Thomas Mullikin is found in News from Green's Gazette, transcribed by the late Dr. Christopher Johnston, and published by the Maryland Historical Society Magazine, Vol XVIII:

"August 11, (1805). On Monday last week as Thomas Mullikin was riding the road in Prince Georges County near the Western Branch, he got a fall from his horse which killed him."

The Will of Thomas Mullikin is as follows:

The Thomas Mullikin home was located in what was known as "The Forks of the Patuxent," (Woodwardsville, Md.). The main part of the house is original, and is shown as it appeared in 1907; having been remodeled by successive generations. The last four or five generations of Mullikins all lived here. The place was sold to a German, previous to the World War, and has since burned down.

7 Benjamin Mullikin⁴ (James,³ James,³ James¹), the youngest child of James² and Charity (Belt) Mullikin, was born November 12, 1731, died 1842. As he was only twelve years of age in 1743, the date of purchase of the land in Anne Arundel County, with "funds now in the hands of Mr. Samuel White March," it is doubtful that he ever occupied this land after reaching his majority. He went, as a young man, to North Carolina, settling in Anderson, where he married Margaret Jarvis. She was a native of Virginia, having been born near Yorktown, in 1766. They had ten children: James, William, Samuel, John, Benjamin, Nancy, Lewis, Polly, Emily and Jenny.

The Anne Arundel County, Maryland, Marriage Licenses show that "Belt Mullikin married Mary Duckett, October 28, 1785." This has given rise to the belief that there were two Belts Mullikin. However, Belt Mullikin, son of James and Charity (Belt) Mullikin, born February 8, 1725 (Queen Anne Parish Register), evidently died previous to March 1739, as he is not mentioned in the Will of his Father under that date.

Chancery Papers No. 1572, (Land Office, Annapolis, Maryland), show that Belt Mullikin died in 1798, and a list of children is given, including Benjamin Hall Mullikin, and Richard Duckett Mullikin, who answered the suit, thus showing them to have been of age. Sophia and Martha answered with their respective husbands, Basil Duckett and Jacob Waters. The Family Bible, of the late William Woodward of Annapolis, states that "Margaret Mullikin was born December 7, 1782." This proves Belt Mullikin to have had five grown children and five children named as minors in 1798.

Chancery Papers No. 1572 consist of a Bond from Belt Mullikin and Richard Duckett,

"Maryland,

Know all men by these presents that we, Belt Mullikin of Anne Arundel County and Richard Duckett of Prince Georges County are held and firmly bound unto Thomas Snowden of Prince Georges County in the full and just sum of sixteen hundred pounds, specia in Spanish Dollars, etc.

The case consists of an Equity suit by Richard Duckett, for the appointment of a Trustee to sell the property of Belt Mullikin, which was covered by the mortgage above referred to.

There is a notice to heirs:

Copy of the Appointment of Guardian:

"To the honorable, Alexander Contee Hanson, Chancellor of Maryland.

I hereby certify that in pursuance of the inclosed and annexed commission I appointed the 24th day of September, to appoint a guardian to the minors in the said commission mentioned, the said appointment to be made at the house of Mrs. Mary Mullikin, at which time and place I did attend and appointed Joshua Gaither guardian for said purpose and took answers of said minors by their guardian aforesaid thus chosen, the guardian's corporeal oath, and now inclose the said answer together with the commission. In witness whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal this 25th of September, 1800.

The Will of Jeremiah Mullikin,⁴ probated January 29, 1789, named Belt Mullikin, his son, as Executor. In the Administration Proceedings we find that Letters were granted to him on February 23, 1789, and Letters of Administration D. B. N. were granted to Benjamin Hall Mullikin, February 15, 1799, in order to close this estate.

Sophia Hall was the daughter of Benjamin and Sophia (Welsh) Hall. Benjamin was born 29th day, 11th month, 1710, and died in 1759-60. He was the third son of Rev. Henry Hall, (1672-1722), first Rector of St. James Parish, in Anne Arundel County, and his wife, Mary Duvall, born 1683. Henry Hall, married in 1701, the latter, who was the daughter of Mareen Duvall, the Huguenot. ✓

Sophia Welsh, born 11-10-1713, was the daughter of Colonel John Welsh, born about 1672, died 1733, who married 3-13-1700, Thomasin Hopkins, and the granddaughter of Major John Welsh, the Immigrant, and Anne, (widow of Hon. Roger Grosse), his wife.

Benjamin Hall, Richard Duckett, Martha, Sophia and Margaret, were the children of Belt Mullikin, by his first marriage to Sophia Hall.

Belt Mullikin, married (2) October 28, 1785, Mary Duckett, daughter of Richard Jacob Duckett and his wife, Martha (Waring) Duckett. Richard Duckett was the son of Richard Duckett, Jr., and his second wife, Elizabeth Williams, who was born 1719, died 1792. She was the daughter of Thomas and Eleanor Williams. The children of Belt and Mary (Duckett) Mullikin were: Reginald (Rignal), Basil Duckett, Baruch, Kitty and Nancy.

In the Will of Jeremiah Mullikin,⁴ he bequeaths one negro boy named "Will," to his grandson, Jeremiah Mullikin,⁶ after the decease of his grandmother, Margaret Mullikin. This is the only place where the name of Jeremiah,⁶ son of Belt,⁵ is found. He must have been a son of Belt⁵ for otherwise, he could not have borne the name of Mullikin, as Belt,⁵ was the only son of Jeremiah Mullikin⁴. He was living in 1787, the date of Jeremiah's⁴ Will, but did not answer in an Equity Suit, when the estate of Belt,⁵ was being settled.

Margaret Mullikin⁵ (Jeremiah,⁴ James,³ James,² James¹), married Thomas Worthington, born 1734. He was the son of Major Nicholas and Catherine (Griffiths) Worthington, daughter of Captain Charles and Catherine (Baldwin) Griffiths. Major Worthington was a Representative of the General Assembly at Annapolis, and commanded the Militia in his section. Thomas Worthington lived near the "Rising Sun," a celebrated wayside resort. They had three children, namely: Jeremiah, Charles Griffiths Worthington, and Thomas.

Ann Mullikin⁶ (Jeremiah,⁴ James,³ James,² James¹), born married Brice (?) Howard, and had a son, Jeremiah Brice Howard,⁶ tioned in the Will of his Grandfather.

James Mullikin⁵ (Thomas,⁴ James,³ James,² James¹), eldest son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Williams) Mullikin, was born in 1761. He married (1) Miss Petty and (2) Ann Duvall, by whom he had nine children, namely: William, Adaline, Henrietta, Elizabeth, Julia Ann, ✓ Benjamin Franklin, John, Richard and Basil. He was heir with his brother, Benjamin,⁵ to the home plantation at "The Forks of the Patuxent." This was held jointly until 1811, when the lands were parted by a new survey and platted by James H. Mariott. The part assigned to James,⁵ consisted of 188¼ acres known as "It Is Done at Last," and "Chaney's Purchase." In October, 1811, he deeded 62 acres to his brother Benjamin,⁵ and 126¼ acres to Samuel Snowden. That same year, he moved his family, household goods, slaves, etc., to Kentucky. They were accompanied by several other Maryland families and settled in Mt. Tabor, Kentucky. In 1834, with his wife and younger children, he removed to Crawfordsville, Indiana, and from there into Illinois, where he died.

Rev. Ridlon in his book on "The Milliken, Milligan and Mullikin Families," gives this James Mullikin, as a Captain in the Revolutionary Army, but this hardly seems possible, as he was not born until 1761.

According to the copy of the original manuscript, the name of the person who made the book is given as "The New York Public Library".

The book is a copy of the original manuscript, and is a very fine copy of the original manuscript.

According to the data of Rev. Ridlon, he was voted a Field Officer, in November, 1775, at which time, he would have been fourteen years of age.

Thomas⁵ (Thomas,⁴ James,³ James,² James¹), second son, was born in 1762. He married, November 30, 1791, Elizabeth Smith. He died in Anne Arundel County, Md., and after his death his widow and their six children, Hilleary, Henryetta, Sarah, Mary, Thomas and Richard, moved to Lancaster, Penna.

Benjamin⁵ (Thomas,⁴ James,³ James,² James¹), third son, was born in 1769, and died January 26, 1848. He married (1) Sarah Harwood, who died October 5, 1826. They had three children: Mortimer Harwood, Benjamin Oscar, and Amanda. After her death he married (2) Mrs. Althea Stewart. They were married April 8, 1827, by the Rév. Henry Aisquith. Benjamin was joint heir with his brother James,⁵ to the home plantation. During the War of 1812, he served with the rank of Captian.

Basil⁵ (Thomas,⁴ James,³ James,² James¹), married February 11, 1806, Susanah Ridgley, daughter of Governor Ridgely. They had twin daughters.

Burach,⁵ died in infancy.

Ellen,⁵ died in childhood.

Ellender⁵ (Thomas,⁴ James,³ James,² James¹), married January 20, 1789, John Smith. They had one daughter, Harriet.

Cave Williams⁵ (Thomas,⁴ James,³ James,² James¹), born July 4, 1776, died at Martinsburg, West Virginia, January, 1847, and is reputed to be buried there in the old Narbonne Cemetery, though a trip there to find and photograph her grave, proved unsuccessful.

The writer's Great-grandfather, a son-in-law of Cave Mullikin, told that she was very beautiful, being a Titian type, of a happy, care-free nature and was extremely fond of dancing and parties. In recalling incidents of her youth, she recounted with pleasure, having danced at a Ball, with General Washington. She married May 25, 1801, William Archable Tuck, of Annapolis, Md. They had six children: Elizabeth Ellen, Julia Ann, Caroline, Mary, William Hallam, and Sophia. Mary died in infancy. After the death of her husband, William Archable Tuck, in February, 1813, she placed her five children with relatives, and on October 28, of that year, married Thomas Henderson Edelin. There were two sons, Thomas and Edward, born of this marriage.

Copy of a paper written by Cave (Mullikin) Tuck Edelin, found among papers and documents in the possession of her daughter, Caroline (Tuck) Alexander, now in the custody of the latter's granddaughter, Miss Edith M. Alexander of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

"Curious remarks on the Bible by a widow that had nothing to do and that could not sleep well.

The Bible contains 3,566,439 letters, 810,697 words, 31,173 verses, 1,129 Chapters, 66 Books. The word "and" occurs 46,227 times, "Lord" 1,855, "Reverend" only once and that in the 111th Psalms 27th verse. The 21 of the 7th Chapter of Ezra contains the alphabet. The 19th Chapter 2nd Book of Kings and the 37 Chapter Isaiah are alike. The first man recorded as buried in a coffin was Joseph 36 Chapter of Genesis and 26 Verse. CVII Psalms, 4 Verses alike. Nowhere but in 1st Chapter 2nd Timothy is the name Grandmother mentioned. The 2nd of Joel and 26 of Acts are two particular fine Chapters to read. 18 Chapter of Revelations and 13th verse is the only place the word "slaves" is mentioned in the Scriptures. There is no name or word of more than six syllables in the Holy Bible.

So Sayeth the Writer."

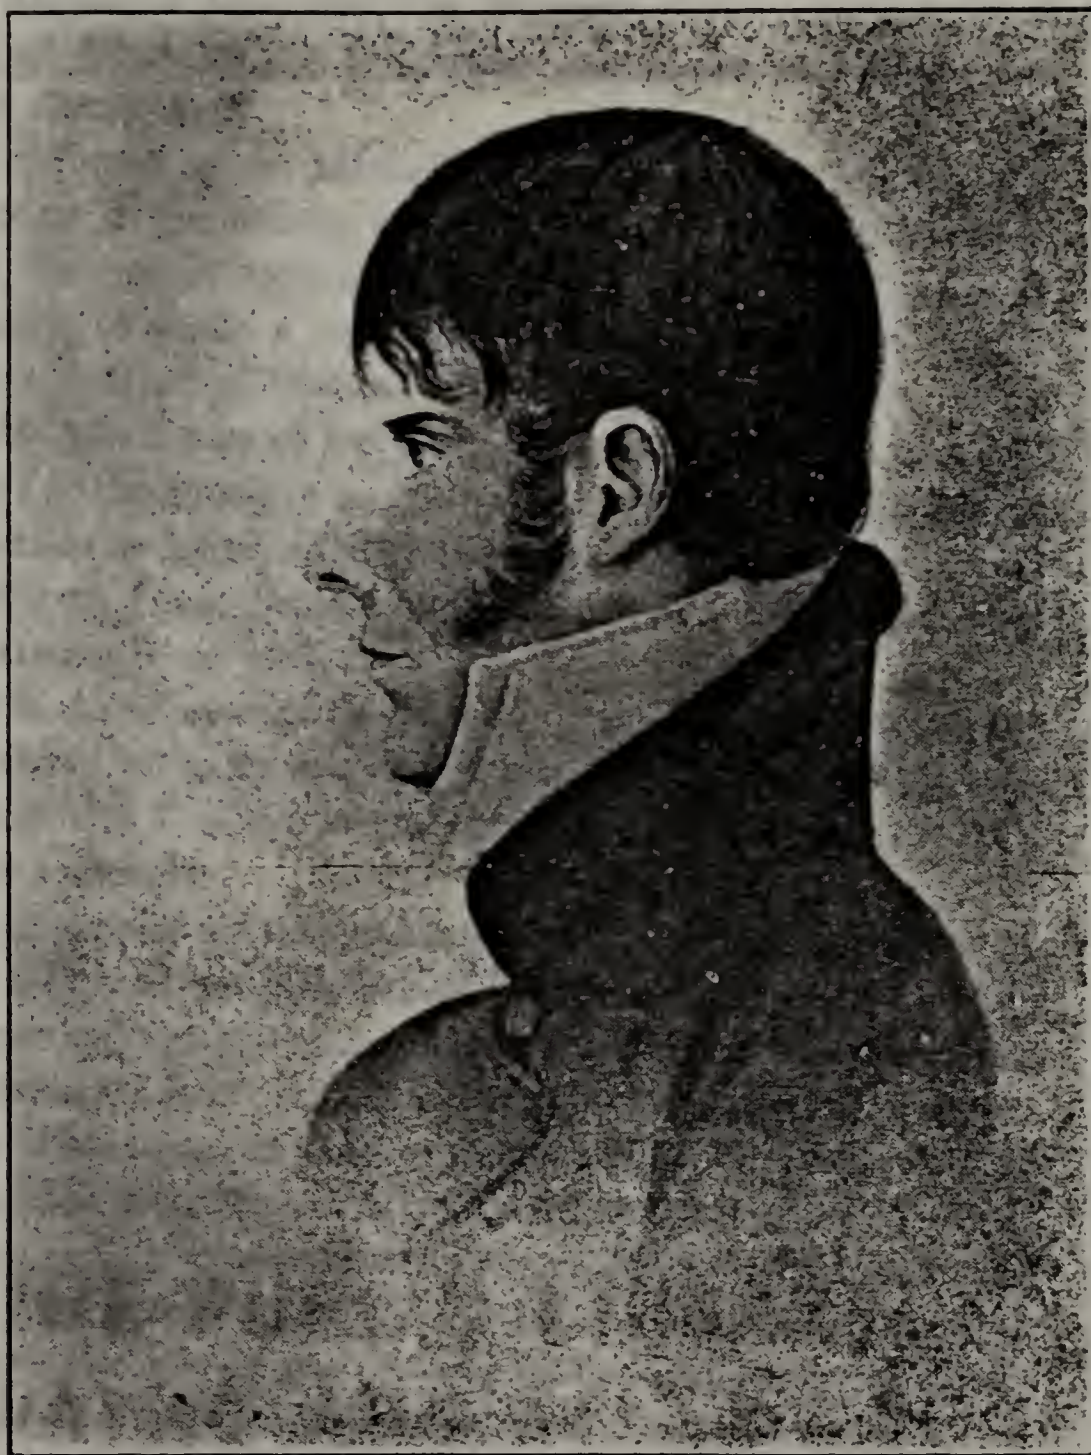

William Archable Tuck, husband of Cave Williams Mullikin, was born previous to 1776, and died February, 1813. He was at one time State Armorer of Maryland. According to family tradition, his death resulted from a heavy cold contracted from stepping into a pool of water, while enroute to a Ball at the Governor's Mansion.

He was the son of William and Elizabeth (Johnson) Tuck.

The Register of St. Margaret's Parish records the marriage of William Tuck, and Sarah Tavener, on February 24, 1738. These two were, undoubtedly, the parents of William Tuck, born 1738, died 1796, who married Elizabeth Johnson, born about 1742, daughter of "Parson" Johnson of the Eastern Shore. Family tradition states that she was the niece of Governor Johnson, first Governor of Maryland, after the Revolution. However, all search has failed to establish this relationship, but there is much to disprove it. Tradition also states that William Tuck, and Elizabeth Johnson, met at a Ball at the Executive Mansion, and that they eloped shortly afterward and were married. They may have met at the Executive Mansion, but not during Governor Johnson's tenure of office for they were married and had children previous to the Revolution, as shown by the first published census of Maryland, 1790. This shows them to have had four children over sixteen years of age at that time.

A Treasurer's account book in the Land Office at Annapolis, shows William Tuck to have been Sheriff of Annapolis in 1784. This was a position carrying dignity and honor in the then early days of the Province.

WILLIAM ARCHABLE TUCK

He was a member of the Council of Safety from July 6, 1776, to March 20, 1777.

"March 20, 1777.

Journal of the Council of Safety

Ordered that the Western Shore Treasurer pay to William Tuck 3£ 10 shillings for seven days attendance as doorkeeper."

That William Tuck was a patriot is proven by the following account from "Annals of Annapolis," by Ridgely:

"Seeds of the American Revolution were sown in 1765 by the passage of the Stamp Act.

When the news of the blockade of Boston Harbor reached Annapolis, a meeting of the citizens was called. On Wednesday, 25th day of May, 1774, the people convened and passed resolutions to unite in effectual measures to obtain a repeal of the late Act of Parliament, for blocking up the Harbor of Boston.

'That the inhabitants of the City join in an association with the several counties of the Province to put an immediate stop to all exports from Great Britian and that after a short day agreed upon, there shall be no imports from Great Britian until the said Act be repealed, and that such association be on oath.

That it is the opinion of this meeting that the Gentlemen of the law of this Province bring no suit for the recovery of any debt due from any inhabitant of this Province to any inhabitant of Great Britian until the said Act be repealed.'

Several citizens of influence expressed the opinion that if the sense of the people had been properly taken, it would not appear that the whole of the proceedings of this meeting received their approval. The friends of American Liberty met the Statement by distributing hand-bills, earnestly requesting another general meeting of citizens. The second meeting was held May 27th, when the proceedings of the 25th were fully approved. The opposition however, did not stop there. On Monday, May 30, a protest signed by 135 citizens, amongst them some of the best names of the town and vicinity, made its appearance expressing their cordial and explicit disapprobation of a resolution which was carried by 45 against 31, at a meeting held the 27th instant.

The Resolution against which we protest, in the face of the world is the following:

'That it is the opinion of this meeting that the Gentlemen of the law of this Province, bring no suit for the recovery of any debt due from an inhabitant of this Province to any inhabitant of Great Britian until said Act be repealed.

First—Because this Act is founded in rashness and treachery and may bring ruin and bankruptcy to those in Great Britain who have given unlimited security believing in our faith and integrity, condemning them unheard, etc.

Second—Because we may be harassed by prosecution of internal suits, fortunes and persons at mercy of creditors.

Third—Because our credit as a commercial people will expire under the wound.'

Among the 135 signing this protest was the name of William Tuck.

William Tuck had two sisters, the elder of whom was Wealthy Tuck. She married John Shaw, the Annapolitan cabinet maker, examples of whose beautiful workmanship are to be found in the old Harwood House at Annapolis. It was under his tutelage that Washington Green and William Archable Tuck, sons of William Tuck, learned the cabinet making profession. As far as is known, they did not follow this profession. The Claude family of Annapolis, have in their possession, a chair made by Washington Green Tuck, and Miss Ethelyn Hopkins, of Chicago, Illinois, has a beautiful mahogany fall-top table made by William Archable Tuck. This latter piece, has the same characteristics and delicate workmanship as the pieces by John Shaw in the Harwood House.

Ellen Tuck, the younger sister, according to family tradition, married William Hallam, the Father of the American stage. However, diligent search has failed to reveal any record of this marriage. William Hallam, a resident of London and brother of Admiral Hallam of the English Navy, sent a company of players to America in 1752, under the leadership of Lewis, his younger brother. The leading lady was the wife of Lewis, and had had considerable experience on the London stage. She first created for America many Shakespearean roles. In 1754, William Hallam decided to visit his players in America and landed in this country in June, of that year. He returned to England, the following year, and died there in 1756. That there was some connection with the Tuck family is evidenced by the carrying down of the name "Hallam," from shortly after the sojourn of the famous players in this country until the present generation.

She married James Hamlin, a hatter of Pittsburgh. He was born in Ireland of an aristocratic family whose ancestry goes back to Baron De Hamlyn who entered England with William the Conqueror. Positions of responsibility under the British Crown, both on land and sea, were held by members of the Hamlin Family. As a young man, he came to America to seek his fortune. There were ten children born to James and Elizabeth (Tuck) Hamlin: Caroline, Ellen, William T., Sophia, Eliza, Ann Jane, James Martin, and Julia, who died in childhood. Two others, names unknown, died in infancy.

land County, Virginia. Their home was called "Chesley." They had eight children: William, Norris, Virginia, Elvira, Florence, Julia, Laura and Thomas.

William Hallam Tuck* (Cave Mullikin,* Thomas,* James,* James,* James*), only son of William Archable and Cave (Mullikin) Tuck, was born November 20, 1808. He married June 22, 1843, Margaret Sprigg Bowie Chew, born January 3, 1818, died March 12, 1885. She was descended from John Chew, of Chewtown, Somersetshire, England who emigrated to Virginia in 1618. John Chew represented Jamestown in the House of Burgesses and later, moved to Hogg Island, Virginia, where he was a Representative in the Assembly until 1643. He removed to Maryland in 1650 and settled on Herring Bay, Calvert County.

After the death of his Father in 1813, William Hallam Tuck was adopted and educated by his uncle, Washington Green Tuck, a wealthy plantation owner of Annapolis. He was graduated from St. Johns College in Annapolis; later studying law in the office of Mr. Somerville Pinkney of that place. He became Speaker of the Maryland Legislature, at the age of twenty-seven years and was afterwards Judge of the Circuit Courts of Anne Arundel and Calvert Counties, Maryland. Endowed with a high sense of justice and possessing a brilliant mind, he was well qualified for the position of Judge of the Court of Appeals, which position he held 1851-61. His speech made January, 1840, in the House of the Delegates of Maryland, to instruct the Senators and request the Representatives of Maryland in the Congress of the United States to vote in favor of the Sub-Treasury Bill, was a most brilliant one and as the subject was one about which little was actually known at the time, indicates the effort and thought expended to collect and assemble authentic data before presenting such a vital issue. He died in 1884.

There were five children born to William Hallam and Margaret (Chew) Tuck: William Hallam, Frances Holland, Maria Louisa, Somerville Pinkney and Philemon.

Dr. Swift, of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to Isaac Hopkins, born August 5, 1810, died April 24, 1884. He was the second son of John and Mary (Jones) Hopkins of Glamorganshire, Wales. Feeling the injustice of the English Law of Primogeniture whereby all property descends to the eldest son, he came to America to seek his fortune and located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, where he engaged in business. He was of an adventurous disposition and accompanied by his eldest son, John, then a youth of sixteen years, he went to the gold fields of California in 1849. Six solid silver teaspoons marked with "S" and "I" for Sophia and Isaac, and bought with the first gold dug by the son John, are a much prized possession of the latter's daughter, Emma (Hopkins) Collins. Isaac Hopkins with his family, removed to Zanesville, Ohio, in 1850, where he in company with six other Welshman, organized the first rolling Mills there.

Sophia (Tuck) Hopkins died March 11, 1903, at the age of ninety-two years. Her mind was keen to the end and as she possessed a remarkable memory, was fond of recounting tales of her girlhood in Maryland. She was a true Southerner in dispensing hospitality and was ever generous to the poor and needy. She kept open house, and anyone needing food and shelter, found both awaiting them at her home. They had eight children: John, Caroline, Mary Jane, Cave Hallam, Catherine, William Tuck, Emma and Isaac and also raised as their daughter, Charlotte Parks, an orphan.

He removed to St. Marys County, Maryland and bot there "Cross Manor" consisting of 2,000 acres in 1661; also "St. Elizabeth's Manor" an estate of 2,000 acres. He lived in Virginia in 1640 and appears to have been a Justice in Accomac County, Virginia in 1652 as he was one of the Committee selected to instruct the delegates to the Assembly. It was in Virginia that he signed the Submission to Parliament in 1651. He was in Maryland in 1643 when he gave testimony in regard to the death of one Roger Oliver who was killed on board a vessel by an Indian (Maryland Archives, Volume IV, page 210), but did not take up residence there until later.

The Provincial Court Proceedings of Maryland for 1661 give the following:

"Mr. John Nuthall, attorney for Major Thomas Brooke demands a write to arrest Richard Games in an acton of debt. Warrant made to the Sheriff of St. Marys County (ret ut supra)."

"The Administrators of Colonel John Price confesseth Judgement in open Court to John Nuthall in the sume of three hundred and eighty pounds of Tobacco two Armes Length of Roanoke and one pound of Beaver."

John Nuthall married in 1645, Elizabeth Bacon, a widow, and daughter of Dr. John Holloway (or Holliday). He died intestate in 1668, and Council ordered that the personal estate of John Nuthall be divided among his three children, John, James and Elinor. He had a fourth child, a son named Elias, who for some reason (unknown) was a servant in Virginia. He may have sold himself into bondage to secure money to pay his debts. At least, he was not a servant by heritage for the Provincial records term his Father as "John Nuthall, Gentleman". In 1671, Elias petitioned for a portion of his Father's estate and his brothers endeavored to buy Elizabeth Bradshaw, servant unto William Claw of St. Jerome and exchange for their brother. They evidently were successful as indicated by the following sale: "Elias Nuthall and Elizabeth his wife sold part of Resurrection Manor lying on Patuxent River for 6,000 pounds Tobacco to Richard Ridgell 1675-1699 (Liber W. R. C., pp 524).

Issue of John³ and Elizabeth (Holloway) Bacon Nuthall:

John Nuthall³ born — was twice married. His first wife's name was Barbara — according to a sale in 1676-1699, in which it is stated that "John Nuthall, son of John, and his wife Barbara sell land near St. Maries in St. Maries County for 1600 pounds." In 1693, he was married to Mary Brent of Stafford County, Virginia, by the Rev. Nicholas Gulick. He had a son, John, Jr.⁴ who married his cousin, Eleanor (Sprigg) Hilleary, widow of Thomas Hilleary. The latter were the parents of two daughters, Eleanor Nuthall, who married Baruch Williams in 1715, and Mary Nuthall, who married Richard Duckett, Jr., March 3, 1729.

James Nuthall³ born — died 1685 as his Will was probated May 30, 1685. He married Margaret — and had one son, James⁴. His widow married James Bigger, as on September 4th, 1685, James⁴ son of James³ Nuthall, brot suit thru his Aunt Eleanor Sprigg, for an accounting of his Father's estate from James Bigger, who had married his Mother.

Elias Nuthall³—Nothing known beyond that fact that he was in bondage in Virginia in 1671 when he petitioned for his share of his Father's estate, and was later released.

Eleanor Nuthall,³ born 1648, died 1694, married as the second wife of Thomas Sprigg I, in 1668. Their children were: Thomas II, John, Martha, Elias, Ann, Elizabeth and Eleanor.

Sprigg Line

Thomas Sprigg I, was born in 1630 in Kethering, Northamptonshire, England, and was a brother of Sir John Gordon Sprigg, Premier Cape Colony and member of the Privy Council. *He married (1) in 1650, Kathryne, widow of Captain William Roper, whose sister, Verlinda Roper, married William Stone, first Protestant Governor of Maryland. (*From data in possession of Mr. Orra Eugene Monnet, author "Monnet's Family Genealogy").

There were two children born of this marriage: Mary Sprigg, born —, died 1693. She married March 12, 1689, Thomas Stockett and had issue.

Sarah Sprigg, born — married John Pearce, a Planter of Calvert County. They had one son named John.

January 18, 1658, a patent was assigned to Thomas Sprigg who had transported himself; Kathryne, his wife; Verlinda Roper; Edward Bushnell; Nathaniel Sprigg and Hugh Johnson.

He was the first of the Sprigg family to settle in Calvert and Prince Georges Counties, Maryland. He first lived in Northampton County, Western Shore of Virginia and it was there that he signed the Submission to Parliament in 1651. From there, he removed to Maryland and lived in or near "Resurrection Manor" in Calvert County, that part which afterwards became Prince Georges County. He later received a grant of 1,000 acres in Maryland from Lord Baltimore which he called "Northampton".

The name of Thomas Sprigg occurs among those in the Province to sign the Address to King William III, congratulating him upon his escape from the conspiracy. He served against the Nanticoke Indians before 1678, and held office at various times from 1658 to 1686. As early as 1661, he was Commissioner for Calvert County; Justice, 1668-69-74; Presiding Justice, 1674, and Gentleman Justice of Peace for Prince Georges County, Maryland. He was Justice of the Quorum and was High Sheriff in 1664, also Commissioner for the Trial of Causes. He was one of the first one thousand settlers in Maryland, and was "Lord of the Manor of Northampton" with all the rights of "Lord of the Manor of England". In 1656, Lieutenant Thomas Sprigg signed Northampton Agreement of True Allegiance to the Commonwealth (Virginia Historical Register—Peabody Library).

In 1696, Thomas Sprigg and other justices and members of the Grand Jury indorsed a round-robin letter from shipowners and commanders of the Maryland fleet, making excuses for delay in sailing to England as due to illness of sailors, desertion of men to Pennsylvania and the backwardness of crops.

In a deposition made in 1665, Thomas Sprigg gave his age as 35 years and in another deposition made in 1694, the same was given as 64 years (ibid, Lib. 2. 4.?[?] No. I, folio 696).

A record in the Land Office which is badly torn shows that Thomas Sprigg was granted 600 acres called "Sprigley" for transporting ——— into the colony.

Thomas Sprigg married as his second wife in 1668, Eleanor Nuthall, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Holloway) Bacon Nuthall. She was born in 1648 and died in 1694. Seven children were born of this second marriage.

The portrait of Thomas Sprigg is the work of the artist, Jacob Huysman, according to a card found on the back of the painting when it was restored a few years ago. Mrs. Herbert Payson of Portland, Maine, a descendant of Thomas Sprigg, and owner of this portrait, describes it as follows: "Colonel Sprigg's coat is a green, so dark that it melts into the deep brown of the background; the stock and ruffles are cream; the brocade and buttons more bronze than brass; the wig is not white, but more the shade of blonde hair with white glints in it; the eyes are brown, and the complexion rather florid."

The following, published by the Baltimore Sun, is a description of "Northampton", previous to its destruction by fire March 17, 1909.

"In Prince Georges County, some six or seven miles inland from the great steel highway along which travelers between Baltimore and Washington are borne swiftly to their destinations, there stands an old manor house, encircled by a plantation of 800 acres, which was built in the colonial days of Maryland, and after a lapse of 200 years is in the possession of direct descendants (thru the feminine line) of its original owners. This is "Northampton" the seat in America of the Sprigg family. "Northampton" was built by Thomas Sprigg, colonist and gentleman from England, whose death occurred in 1704. A full length portrait of that worthy, still in the possession of descendants represents a handsome man in full court costume, while the Archives of Maryland give abundant proof that the original was a gentleman of official distinction and social importance.

THOMAS SPRIGG

Portrait of a woman

"The old house is reached by a corduroy road given to what might be termed fitful windings, since its caprice is to go around obstacles rather than across or thru them, and the sand-swept log foundation of the roads rotten and insecure from age, leaves much to be desired in the way of park improvement. The plantation is entered long before the house appears in view, and one comes rather suddenly by the turn of the driveway upon this charming old homestead. The manor house is of frame, about 125 feet front, and such portion as is of the original architecture is put together without nails. The drawing room, library and dining room all with high chimney pieces and wide, open fireplaces, face the front, and in the rear, according to the fashion of 200 years ago, are bedrooms with tall Gothic windows and other rooms now used as pantries.

"The place is well wooded, and about the residence are elm and willow trees, also flowering magnolia trees and white fringe trees trailing their delicate blossoms. There is a real lovers' walk winding between a hedge of old-fashioned lilacs that bend in clusters of purple and white fragrance thru the early spring sunshine. Quaint yellow daffodils scatter their gold amid April's grasses, and June unfolds the warmth of color and incense of myriad hundred-leaved roses.

"There are stately poplar trees also, and in the grove is a well of olden days with a well-house built over it. Beyond in the hollow are still grouped relics of the negro quarters of slave days.

"Here was spent the youth of Governor Samuel Sprigg, who became the heir of his Uncle, Osborne Sprigg and from him inherited "Northampton". Here was brot in 1811, the Governor's bride and here was born in 1812, the Governor's little daughter Sally whose baby helplessness was the safeguard of "Northampton" from destruction by the British when the latter troops advanced along the Patuxent River to attack Washington. Governor Sprigg was in hiding at the time and the house was examined but owing to the young baby and its Mother, the homestead escaped injury or pillage beyond the seizure of wines and provisions."

The first of these is the fact that the book is written in a style which is both simple and direct. The author does not attempt to be clever or to show off his knowledge of the subject. He writes in a straightforward manner, and his language is clear and concise. This is a great advantage, for it makes the book accessible to a wide range of readers. The second point is that the book is well organized. The author has a clear plan, and he follows it throughout. This makes it easy for the reader to follow the argument and to see how the different parts of the book fit together. The third point is that the book is well written. The author's style is pleasant to read, and his arguments are convincing. This is a book that is worth reading, and it is one that should be read by all who are interested in the subject.

Thomas Sprigg II, born in 1669, to whom the Maryland Archives refer as Thomas Sprigg, Jr., was, like his Father, in close touch with the Provincial Government. He was appointed Gentleman of the Grand Jury and one of a Committee composed of members of the Honorable Council, Justices of the Provisional Court and Gentlemen of the Grand Jury, who in 1697, were sent to treat with the Emperor of the Piscataway Indians in Virginia. He held the Office of Burgess 1712-1715, was styled Major in the House Journal of 1713 and Lieutenant Colonel, in 1715.

He married about 1690, Margaret Mariarte, daughter of Professor Edward and Honore Mariarte. The name Mariarte was evidently but a careless or indifferent way of spelling the good old Irish name of Moriarty. Edward Mariarte, who apparently was the first of that name in Maryland, settled in Anne Arundel County, where he died in 1688, leaving a Will dated November 26, 1687, appointing as Overseers, Solomon Sparrow, Richard Tydings and John Belt. This Will proved June 4, 1688, names sons Daniel and Edward (not then 21 years of age) and wills them an 170-acre tract of land called "Friend's Choice"; daughters Margaret, Elizabeth and Rachel, also Honore, his wife.

His widow, Honore Mariarte, died in 1701 leaving a Will dated March 1, 1701, proved April 25, 1701. It names the same children.

Elizabeth Levett of Prince Georges County, a widow, died in 1730, leaving a Will dated September 22, 1725, and proved December 5, 1730, in which is named a son; three daughters; my brother, Daniel Mariarte and my sister, Margaret Sprigg, a ring each. (Maryland Historical Magazine, Volume 1, page 38). This authority makes the following comment: "The Testatrix was evidently the daughter of Edward and Honore Mariarte of Anne Arundel County who died respectively in 1688 and 1701. Mrs. Levett's sister, Margaret Sprigg, would seem to have been the wife of Thomas Sprigg of Prince Georges County. This latter assumption was subsequently established." "August 18, 1703, Account Daniel Mariarte, late deceased—among other items 'a legacy to Margaret', sister to accountant and wife of Thomas Sprigg, Jr., etc."

Several sources give the name of the wife of Thomas Sprigg, Jr., as Margaret Osborne, but these two wills are proof that this is an error.

MARIARTE ARMS

Argent—An eagle displayed sable.

Crest—An arm embowed in armour holding a dagger, the blade environed with a serpent.

In the Will of Thomas Sprigg I, dated 9th Day May, 1704, he bequeaths the following to his son, Thomas Sprigg, Jr.: "Item I give my son Thomas Sprigg my Dwelling house and all houses and land of Northampton and Rolling that I have not disposed of and one part of 500 acres of land I patented for me The Manor of Collington to have his third part in the Middle of the land 500 acres to him and his heirs forever and also I give him my Silver Ladle, Great Bible and my Silver Tankard."

Thomas Sprigg, Jr., died in 1726. There appears to have been no Will of Thomas Sprigg, Jr., but the Land Office at Annapolis shows that the inventory of his personal effects was filed, May 28, 1726. It gives Mrs. Margaret Sprigg as Administratrix and was approved by Osborne and Edward Sprigg, as nearest of kin. About 1740, there was filed the inventory of the estate of Mrs. Margaret Sprigg with Osborne as Administrator and Edward and Thomas as "relations".

The Register of Queen Anne's Parish, Prince Georges County records the following children of Thomas and Margaret Mariarte Sprigg: John, Mary, Priscilla, Margaret, Edward and Osborne. There were two other children not mentioned in this list: Thomas and Elizabeth.

John Sprigg,² second son of Thomas and Eleanor (Nuthall) Sprigg, died before 1700.

Martha Sprigg,² married Thomas Prather and had Aaron, Thomas (under age in 1711) and John Smith Prather who died in 1763. The latter married Elizabeth ——— and had eight children.

Elias Sprigg,² died before 1700.

Ann Sprigg,² married Phillip Gittens or Gittings who died in 1721. They had two sons, Philip and John.

Elizabeth Sprigg,² married Robert Wade who died in 1714. He was the son of Zachariah Wade, the immigrant, a Colonial officer.

They had Josiah, Martha, Aaron, Ellinor, Elizabeth, Jeremiah, Zachariah and Rachel.

Eleanor Sprigg,² married (1) Thomas Hilleary in 1684; (2) John Nuthall previous to 1704 and (3) Rev. George Murdock in 1729. Children by the first marriage were: Thomas, Francis, Verlinda and Tabitha Hilleary. Children by the second marriage were: Eleanor and Mary Nuthall.

Thomas Sprigg,³ eldest son of Thomas² and Margaret (Mariarte) Sprigg, married Margery Beall, daughter of Colonel Ninian and Ruth (Moore) Beall. She married after his death as second wife, Colonel Joseph Belt who had married first, her sister, Hester. Thomas Sprigg died 1725.

Edward Sprigg³ (Colonel), second son, born 1697, died November 30, 1751. He was Justice and Speaker of the Maryland Assembly. He married April 20, 1720, Elizabeth Pile, daughter of Dr. Richard Pile. Queen Anne's Parish Register records the following children of Edward and Elizabeth (Pile) Sprigg:

Richard Sprigg,⁴ born April 28, 1721.

Edward Sprigg,⁴ born June 12, 1723.

James Sprigg,⁴ born January 27, 1724-25.

*Margaret Sprigg,⁴ born April 20, 1726, died 1804, married Captain William Bowie who died in 1791. His Will dated March 15, 1791, was probated, April 9, 1791. Their children were: Elizabeth Bowie; Walter married Mary Brooke; Robert married Priscilla Mackall and was afterwards Governor of Maryland; William married Elizabeth (Brooks) Sprigg, widow of John Clark Sprigg; Osborne died unmarried; Ann married Philomen Chew and Margaret who married Benjamin Brooks.

Thomas Sprigg,⁴ born February 24, 1727.

Elizabeth Sprigg,⁴ born September 28, 1728.

Gilbert and Mary Sprigg,⁴ twins, born August 11, 1730.

*There is some difference of opinion as to the parentage of Margaret Sprigg as her birth is recorded in Queen Anne's Register as daughter of Osborne and Elizabeth Sprigg but the entry is made be-

Frederick Sprigg,⁴ born 1749, died 1791, married 1775 Deborah Woodward. He was a Major, Upper Battalion, Montgomery County, Maryland, 1779.

Edward Sprigg,³ married (2) Mary Belt, born December 24, 1722, daughter of Colonel Joseph and Hester (Beall) Belt. She afterwards married Thomas Pindell.

Osborne Sprigg,³ born 1707, died January 7, 1750. He is supposed to have married (1) Elizabeth ——— but this is doubtless an error due to the placing of the name of Margaret Sprigg, daughter of Edward, in the Queen Anne's Register as that of Osborne and Elizabeth Sprigg. He married Rachel Belt, July 11, 1727. She was the daughter of Colonel Joseph Belt. There were several children born of this marriage.

Osborne Sprigg,⁴ was the eldest son. It must have been this Osborne who inherited "Northampton" which he later willed to his nephew, Samuel Sprigg, whom he adopted and who became Governor of Maryland.

Joseph Sprigg,⁴ married Hannah (Lee) Bowie, widow of Thomas Bowie, whose first wife was Esther Sprigg, his sister. The Will of Joseph Sprigg was probated in Calvert County, Maryland, in 1800. His heirs as known in 1803 were: Joseph, Osborne, Corbin, Thomas, William, Samuel, Ann and Hannah. He is supposed to have been married three times, each time to a widow with children.

William Sprigg,⁵ son of Joseph,⁴ died unmarried in the Northwest Territory.

Ann Sprigg,⁵ married Charles Carroll of Bellevue.

Hannah Sprigg,⁵ died unmarried.

tween two others referring to Edward and Elizabeth Sprigg. This may have been a clerical error. There are two strong factors which would indicate that she was the daughter of Edward and Elizabeth Sprigg. The first is that Osborne Sprigg was but 18 years of age in 1725, the year previous to the birth of Margaret, and the second is that Edward mentions a daughter Margaret in his Will, whereas Osborne does not. The Will of Edward Sprigg, dated 1751, mentions his wife, Mary; his children, Edward, Frederick, Margaret, Gilbert, James Jacob and expected child.

Samuel Sprigg,³ was adopted by his Uncle, Osborne Sprigg,⁴ and inherited "Northampton". He married January 1, 1811, Violette Lansdale, daughter of Thomas Lancaster Lansdale and his wife, Cornelia (VanHorne) Lansdale. Samuel Sprigg was Governor of Maryland during the War of 1812.

His first child, Sally Sprigg, born March 27, 1812, was an infant when the British troops marched up the Patuxent River to attack Washington, and "Northampton" was visited by them.

Osborne Sprigg,⁶ son of Samuel⁵ was born November 7, 1813 or 1815. He married, December 22, 1840, Caroline Lansdale Bowie, daughter of Robert William Bowie. She was the granddaughter of Governor Robert and Priscilla (Mackall) Bowie, as well as the granddaughter of Isaac Lansdale, brother of Thomas Lansdale, who was the Father of Violette, wife of Samuel Sprigg. Thus the grandfather of Osborne Sprigg and the grandmother of his wife, Caroline Lansdale Bowie, were brother and sister. Osborne Sprigg,⁶ died November 22, 1862, his wife having preceded him in death ten years. Their children were: Mary Bowie Sprigg who married James W. Anderson of Rockville, Maryland; Violette who died unmarried; Catherine died unmarried; and Samuel who married in 1888, Mademoiselle Dubois of Cannes, France.

Joseph Sprigg,⁵ married Ann Taylor of Oltown, Maryland, and had fourteen children.

Osborne Sprigg,⁵ married Miss Cresap of Oldtown, Virginia. Four children.

Thomas Sprigg,⁵ was a Judge of the Supreme Court of Ohio.

Esther Sprigg,⁴ daughter of Osborne⁵ and Rachel (Belt) Sprigg, born November 15, 1730, died before 1749, married Thomas Bowie. There were no children by this marriage. He married about 1751, Hannah Lee, daughter of Philip Lee. She married after his death, Joseph Sprigg, brother of Esther, first wife of Thomas Bowie.

Thomas Sprigg,⁴ son of Osborne³ and Rachel (Belt) Sprigg, married December 14, 1737, Elizabeth Galloway (or Gallaway), daughter of Richard and Sophia Galloway. The Will of Thomas Sprigg of Longmeadow, Washington County, Maryland, dated September 14, 1769, probated June 21, 1782, mentions his son and three grandchildren.

His son, Richard Sprigg,³ married 1765, Margaret Caile, daughter of John, an Englishman and his wife, Rebecca (Ennalls) Caile. He died December 16, 1798-99. Their children were:

Sophia Sprigg,⁴ born 1766, died 1812, married 1785, Colonel John Francis Mercer of the Revolutionary Army, who at the time of his marriage was a member of the Virginia Congress and resided on his estate, Marlboro on the Potomac. His wife inherited Cedar Park, West River, Maryland, about the year 1799 when he removed to Maryland. He was elected Governor of the State in 1801. Their son, John Mercer, married Mary Swann and had ten children.

Rebecca Sprigg,⁵ born 1767, married Dr. James Steuart of Baltimore, a distinguished physician, who later lived at his estate, Holloy Grove, at Sparrows Point. They had several children.

Elizabeth Sprigg,⁶ born 1770, died 1813, married 1795, Hugh Thompson.

Henrietta Sprigg,⁷ born 1775, died 1791.

Margaret Sprigg, born 1790, died 1861.

Priscilla Sprigg,³ daughter of Thomas, Jr., and Margaret Mariarte Sprigg, married August 22, 1716, Ralph Crabb and had eight children.

Margaret Sprigg,³ born 1700, died 1755, married September 26, 1717, Francis King, born March 2, 1697. They had four children:

Mary King,⁴ born August 28, 1718, married 1735, John Hilleary.

Thomas King,⁴ born October 5, 1720.

Cave King,⁴ born June 1, 1722, died 1792, married about 1740, Thomas Williams, born January 25, 1717. Their children were: Eleanor, who married Benjamin Boyd; Elizabeth Ellen married Thomas Mullikin; Thomas married Rachel Duckett; Basil; Lilburn married Mary Thompson; Elisha; and Osborne who married Elizabeth Magruder.

Francis King,⁴ born January 19, 1724.

Eleanor Sprigg,³ married in 1716, Henry Wright, and had a daughter, Mary, who married previous to 1744, Thomas Snowden born 1722, son of Richard and Elizabeth (Thomas) Snowden. Their son, Major Thomas Snowden married Anne Ridgely and they were the parents of Richard Snowden who married Eliza Warfield, daughter of Dr. Charles Alexander Warfield of "Peggy Stewart" fame. Caroline Elizabeth, the daughter of Richard and Eliza (Warfield) Snowden married Honorable Albert Fairfax of Vancluse, Fairfax County, Virginia. It was their son, John Contee Fairfax, 11th Baron Fairfax, who purchased "Northampton". Albert Fairfax, son of the latter has since reclaimed the title, Baron Fairfax of Cameron, and now resides in London.

Elizabeth Sprigg,³ married Josiah Wilson, son of Major Josiah and Martha (Lingan) Wilson and had three children. He died in 1727 and she married the latter part of 1734, Turnor Wootton, a two-times widower, whose daughter Elizabeth by his second wife, Agnes (Chambers) Wootton, married Dr. Richard Sprigg. By this second marriage, Elizabeth (Sprigg) Wilson Wootton had Thomas Sprigg Wootton, who was active in the War of the Revolution.

Margaret, born August 28, 1718, married in 1735, John Hilleary.

Thomas King born October 5, 1720.

Cave King born June 1, 1722, died 1792, married about 1740, Thomas Williams, born January 25, 1717. They had eight children, namely: Eleanor, *Elizabeth Ellen, Thomas, Basil, Baruch, Lilburn, Elisha and Osborne. These sons all served in the Revolutionary Army.

Francis King born June 19, 1724. It was doubtless this Francis King who served as a Private in the Revolutionary Army from February 26, 1777 until April 10, 1779, at which time, he was made a Corporal. He was discharged January 1, 1780.

(Births are from Queen Anne's Parish Records)

Francis King who married Margaret Sprigg, received part of "Reparation" and also 100 acres "Northampton" from Thomas Sprigg II (D of G L 1, pp. 258).

He served as a Private, Center Ranks, Foot Militia, Prince Georges County, under command of Samuel Magruder, as shown under date of November 5, 1748. He was a Corporal in Captain Dagworthy's Company 0 9, 1757 to June 28, 1759, having been mustered as a Sergeant from N9 in 1758. He was in the French and Indian War and was present at Braddock's Defeat and the Battles of Loyalhanna and Fort Duquesne, according to the following account in the Maryland Historical Society Magazine, Volume 5, 1910. "Died" is marked after his name.

*Elizabeth Ellen Williams married Thomas Mullikin.

"That the Roster of Maryland Troops in the French and Indian War has been preserved is due to the disputes between the two branches of the Assembly and to their difference with Governor Sharpe. The Lower House always expressed a willingness to make provision for a small body of Provincial Troops, but on terms which the Upper House consistently refused to accept; or if the two houses by chance agreed on any plan, it was one that the Governor could not accept without yielding some prerogative of the Proprietary. Braddock's Defeat aroused the Assembly to action, and at the February Session of 1756, the sum of 40,000 pounds was voted for his Majesty's Service. At subsequent sessions, the Assembly declined to more than provide for the support of 300 Militia, who could not be sent beyond Fort Frederick nor used as a fixed garrison for Fort Cumberland. Captain Dagworthy was given the command of the Maryland Troops sent to the frontier of Frederick County (Archives Volume 6:95) in 1754 and in 1756, took part in the construction of Fort Frederick. Fort Cumberland, tho a royal fort had been built by the Virginians on Maryland soil which may account for the objection of the Assembly to providing a garrison and for the later dispute as to precedence in command between Colonel Washington and Colonel Dagworthy.

The correspondence of Governor Sharpe fully covers this period. It appears that he at first supported the Troops by advancing money on the supposition that he would be reimbursed; later he maintained them thru private subscription, and finally, as the Ledger shows, from money advanced by General Amherst.

The records from which this roster is compiled, consist of 53 Muster Rolls and an indexed ledger which is dated 1762. They show service from October 9, 1757, up to which time the Troops had been paid in one of the ways mentioned above; but it is probable that some of the men had been with Captain Dagworthy as early as 1754. These records were most carefully kept in order to secure payment for the men in spite of the Assembly's refusal to provide for them and the final settlement appears to have been made March 16, 1763. The Maryland Troops were present with Captain Dagworthy at Braddock's Defeat; they suffered severely at Major Grant's Defeat near Fort Duquesne, September 14, 1758; they lost a number of men during the attack on the advanced post Loyalhanna, October 12, 1758; and they were present at the occupation of Fort Duquesne, November 25, 1758."

Williams Line

Thomas Williams, Colonist, obtained a grant of 600 acres, first month, 7th day, 1664 for transporting twelve persons into the colony in the year 1660.

He married ——— and had a son named Baruch Williams,² born 1665, who married Eleanor Hilleary in 1690. She was the daughter of Thomas Hilleary and his first wife, name unknown. Baruch Williams came into the Province of Maryland about 1678 with Joseph Ricord, John Lee, Elizabeth Wiseman and Richard Tauney of Calvert County, Maryland (Land Grants No. 15A folio 504, Land Office, Annapolis, Maryland). He was probably born in Wales and died in Prince Georges County, Maryland, intestate. His father-in-law, Thomas Hilleary, administered upon his estate and made distribution to the two sons, Baruch and Thomas Williams (Administration Accounts No. 15 folio 46-1694, Land Office).

Baruch Williams³ (Baruch,² Thomas¹), eldest son of Baruch² and Eleanor (Hilleary) Williams born 1691, married 1715, Eleanor Nuthall. She was the daughter of John Nuthall, son of John, Jr., and Eleanor (Sprigg) Hilleary Nuthall. After the death of Baruch Williams, she married July 28, 1724, John Pratt by whom she had four children. Of the four children born to Eleanor (Nuthall) Williams Pratt and her second husband, John Pratt born 1725, was the eldest. The other three were: Elizabeth, born 1726; Eleanor, born 1728, and Thomas, born 1730. Two children, Mary and Hilleary, were born to Baruch and Eleanor (Nuthall) Williams.

Mary Williams⁴ (Baruch,³ Baruch,² Thomas¹), born January 19, 1717, was the eldest child of Baruch³ and Eleanor (Nuthall) Williams. Nothing further is known.

Hilleary Williams⁴ (Baruch,³ Baruch,² Thomas¹), born December 27, 1719, married ——— and had one son Walter.

Walter Williams⁵ (Hilleary,⁴ Baruch,³ Baruch,² Thomas¹), born ——— married Verlinda Beall and had four sons, Walter, Erasmus, Humphrey and Calvert. These births are from the Records of Queen Anne's Parish Register, Prince Georges County, Maryland.

Thomas Williams³ (Baruch,² Thomas¹), second son of Baruch and Eleanor (Hilleary) Williams, born 1693, married about 1716, Eleanor ———. He died 1749. There were the following ten children:

Thomas Williams,⁴ the eldest son was born January 25, 1717. He married 1740, Cave King, daughter of Francis and Margaret (Sprigg) King. The latter was the daughter of Thomas Sprigg, Jr., and his wife, Margaret Mariarte. Thomas Williams, with his wife and eight children lived on his plantation in Queen Anne's Parish, Prince Georges County, Maryland. He was Vestryman, Warden and Treasurer of the Parish. He was Justice of Prince Georges County from 1752-1770. On December 3, 1766, he was commissioned Justice of the Quorum and served in this capacity for several years. The Court Proceedings of Prince Georges County show that Thomas Williams received bounty money, 27 pounds Sterling, for a piece of linen manufactured by him from flax grown on his plantation. The inventory of his estate was filed 1770, 3rd month, 20th day, and 2,221 pounds Sterling was later distributed to the family. He died either the latter part of 1769 or early part of 1770 since March was the time the inventory was filed. The oldest child of Thomas and Cave (King) Williams was:

Eleanor,⁵ born ——— who married December 27, 1758, Benjamin Boyd.

Elizabeth Ellen Williams,⁶ our ancestress, was born in 1743. She married February 27, 1761, Thomas Mullikin, born May 24, 1729, who died in 1805, son of James and Charity (Belt) Mullikin. They were married in Queen Caroline Parish, and had the following children: James, Benjamin, Ellen, Basil, Baruch, Osborne, Sarah, Elizabeth, Mary, Charity, Thomas, Jr., Ellender and Cave. (See record Thomas Mullikin for more detailed account these children.)

Thomas Williams,⁶ the eldest son, was born 1745, died 1785. Married 1768 or 1769, his first cousin, Rachel Duckett, daughter of Richard Duckett, Jr., and his Aunt, Elizabeth (Williams) Duckett. He resided in Queen Anne's Parish, Prince Georges County, Maryland, where he was commissioned Justice of the Peace. He was Clerk of the Provincial Convention 1775; Commissioned Lieutenant, Prince Georges County Militia, March 18, 1776; First Major, 25th Battalion, March 18, 1776, and Major, June 12, 1776. He was in command at the Battle of Germantown, and on October 4th, 1777, was made a Colonel in the Revolutionary Army. He was also High Sheriff of Prince Georges County, 1779. During the War of the Revolution, he was commissioned and acted as Justice of the County Courts. His activities in Public Service greatly impaired his financial resources and after his death, his property was sold by Luther Martin thru the High Court of Chancery to meet his obligations. There were two children born to Thomas and Rachel (Duckett) Williams: Richard and Eleanor.

Rachel (Duckett) Williams, widow of Thomas,⁵ married (2) Philip Turner, born June 10, 1728 at "Ralpho", Prince Georges County, died 1796. He had married (1) Rachel Warfield, daughter of Richard, and (2) Sarah Gambrill. He served in the Revolutionary Army and was an Ensign July 10, 1777.

Lilburn Williams,⁵ born 1749, was commissioned third Lieutenant, 6th Maryland Independent Company, Dorchester County, March 2, 1776 and on April 17, 1777, he was commissioned a Captain of the Third Regiment. He married Mary Thompson, daughter of Dr. Adamson Thompson, who first introduced into this country, the practice of vaccination as a preventative for smallpox.

Elisha Williams,⁵ born 1750, died unmarried about 1779. He was Second Lieutenant, Lower District, Frederick County, Maryland, and on December 10, 1776, was commissioned Captain of the Seventh Regiment. He was discharged November 28, 1778.

He served in the Revolutionary Army until October 1779 and then left his regiment because of an impaired heart. In the War of 1812, he served with the rank of Colonel. He married October 17, 1787, Elizabeth Magruder, daughter of Jeremiah and Mary (Tyler)

Magruder. He died in 1819 and both he and his wife are buried in the Cemetery at St. Stephens P. E. Church in Millersville, Anne Arundel County, Maryland.

Elizabeth Williams,⁴ daughter of Thomas and Eleanor — Williams, was born 1719. She married June 1735, as his second wife, Richard Duckett, Jr., born February 21, 1704, died 1790. He had married (1) March 3, 1729, Mary Nuthall, daughter of John and Eleanor (Sprigg) Hilleary Nuthall.

Richard Duckett, Jr., was a Vestryman of Queen Anne's Parish and by that Vestry, was appointed Tobacco Inspector of Patuxent Hundred of Prince Georges County. He was one of the Commissioners to guard the Patuxent River in 1770, to prevent tea and other objectionable imports from being landed in the provinces along that river. He was the son of Richard Duckett, Sr. (probably the original settler) born before 1675 who died after November 7, 1754 in Queen Anne's Parish, Prince Georges County. The latter was the first Clerk of that Parish and afterwards, Vestryman, thereof a prominent citizen. He married January 26, 1698-99, Charity Jacob, daughter of Captain John and Anne (Cheney) Jacob.

Hilleary Line

There is a tradition that the name Hilleary, associated with the early colonization of Maryland, is derived from the mountain regions of Scotland and that its meaning is "strong, brave men of the hills." The Hilleary family of colonial Maryland is said to have derived from Scottish ancestry and to have come from Yorkshire, which lies on the Scottish border.

The origin of the Hilleary family was Chamberlayne Hilary, Bart., of Danbury Place, Essex, Riggs House, York. Thomas Hilleary, the Immigrant, came to Calvert County, Maryland, and with others signed to King Charles II for a grant of land of over 1,000 acres called "The Three Sisters", in Calvert County. When Prince Georges County was taken off, in part, it fell in that county.

Thomas Hilleary was one of the inhabitants who, December 31, 1689, addressed a letter to King William and Queen Mary, announcing their unwillingness to call an assembly of the Province until a Governor had been formally appointed by the sovereigns.

The Will of Thomas Hilleary of Calvert County, Maryland, dated February 2, 1697, probated March 15, 1697, gives his wife, Eleanor, 250 acres, part of "Three Sisters"; to son, John Hilleary and heirs, 400 acres, part of "Three Sisters"; to two daughters, Mary Berry and Elizabeth Lyle, all personal estates formerly belonging to Baruch Williams; to daughter, Frances Wilson, daughters Verlinda and Talitha at 16 years of age and to son, John, personalty. His son, Thomas was made Executor and residuary legatee of personal property, and said son is left in care of Walter Sinns. To grandsons, Baruch and Thomas Williams, were left 100 acres each of "Three Sisters". The testators were: John Bowley, Robert Brothers and Richard Evins.

Thomas Hilleary married (1) ——— by whom he had five children. His second wife whom he married in 1684-85, was Eleanor Sprigg, youngest daughter of Thomas Sprigg I and his second wife, Eleanor Nuthall. That Thomas Hilleary was twice married is proven by the fact that in 1681, his son Thomas was deceased and had due him from Mr. Richard Bennet, 46 pounds sterling which shows him to have been of lawful age in 1681 and that his Father was either married when he arrived in the colonies in 1661, or shortly thereafter.

A second reason for the statement that he was twice married is that in 1697, the date of his Will, his four eldest children were also married and had children as shown by his Will, while his three younger children were minors of tender years. ("Monnet's Family Genealogy," by Orra Eugene Monnet, page 1091).

Thomas Hilleary² (Thomas¹), eldest son of Thomas Hilleary and his first wife died in 1681 and his estate was settled by his Father.

John² (Thomas¹) married Ann Perry and moved to Frederick County, where he purchased in 1770, "Mt. Pleasant" from Governor Thomas S. Lee. They had eight children: Tilghman, Thomas, Perry, Rebecca, Betsy, Eleanor, Sallie and John.

Eleanor² (Thomas¹), married 1690, Baruch Williams² son of Thomas Williams¹, the Immigrant. They had two sons, Baruch and Thomas.

Mary² (Thomas¹), married Benjamin Berry, born in 1670 in Virginia, and had two sons. He was the son of James Berry who emigrated from England to Virginia in 1630-32 and later settled in Calvert County, Maryland.

Elizabeth² (Thomas¹), married Robert Lisle,—Lile or Lyle—records give the various ways of spelling. He derived his names from the Lyles who were driven from England. Lord Phillip was one of the Judges who sat to King Charles I. Elizabeth Hilleary was the Ancestress of the Lyles of Virginia and Maryland. Their children were Robert, Priscilla, William and Thomas.

Thomas³ (Thomas¹), born 1685-86, was the eldest son of Thomas and Eleanor (Sprigg) Hilleary. He married 1707, Eleanor Young, daughter of George and Elizabeth Young. The Will of George Young, probated July 7, 1718, mentions wife and nine children, one of whom was Eleanor Hilleary. Thomas Hilleary² was Lieutenant Colonial, Provincial Troops. They had three children: Thomas, Sarah and Henry.

Frances² (Thomas¹), married ——— Wilson and had three children.

Verlinda² (Thomas¹), married Joseph West.

Tabitha² (Thomas¹)—nothing further known.
